ٱلْمَسَد

Surah Al-Masad

The Twisted Rope Surah

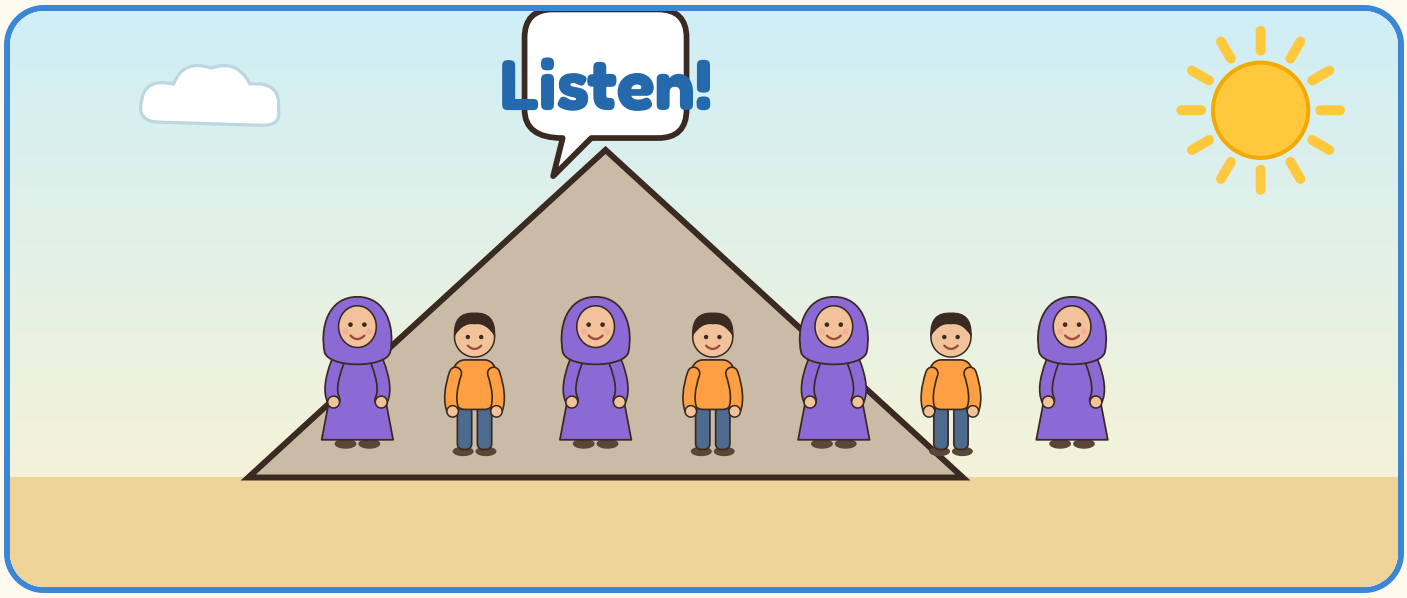

SURAH 111 | 5 AYAHS

The big message: Money does not protect us. Be kind, and listen to the truth.

This book belongs to: _____

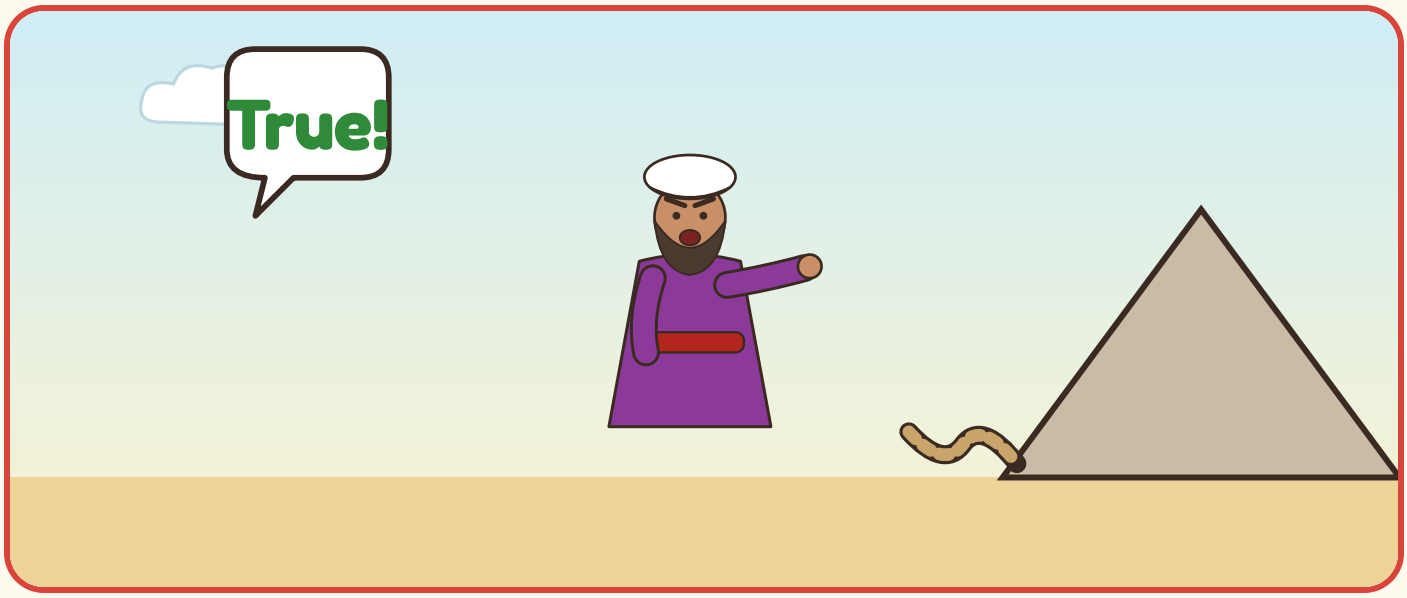

A Message from the Hill

When Allah told the Prophet to share the message with everyone, he stood on a small hill by the Ka'bah.

"Come, everyone, I have something important to say!" All the tribes came. "If I said an army is behind this mountain, would you believe me?" "Yes! You never lie," they said.

Abu Lahab Gets Angry

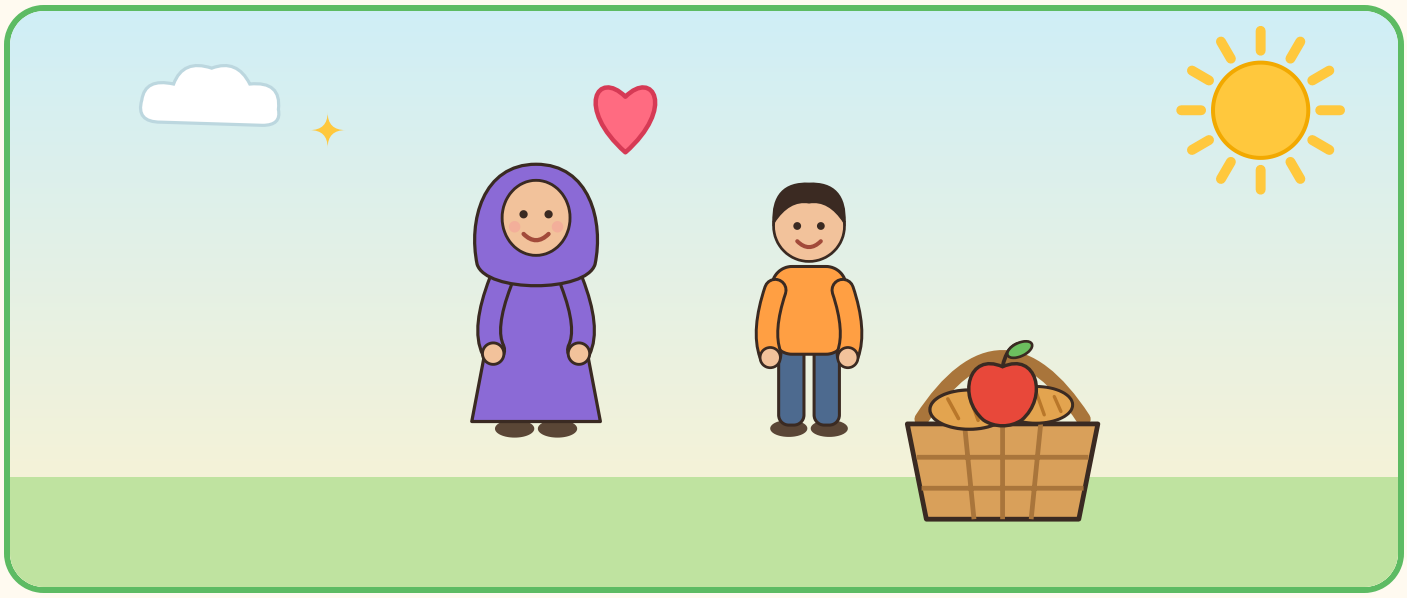

The Prophet said, “I am Allah’s messenger. Please stop worshipping idols.”

His uncle, Abu Lahab, was there. He got very angry and was unkind. He walked away, and he and his wife kept hurting the Prophet.

THE STORY OF THE SURAH

Be Kind, Listen to the Truth

Allah sent this surah. It says that money and family do not protect us when we choose to be unkind.

Abu Lahab should have listened to the truth. We should always be kind and listen carefully.

Think about it: Why is it good to listen first?

For grown-ups: from The Clear Quran for Kids (reported by Imam Al-Bukhari and others), told gently for little readers.

THE SURAH • PART 1

Ayahs 1 and 2: Fighting the truth

Start with: Bismillah-ir-Rahman-ir-Raheem

1

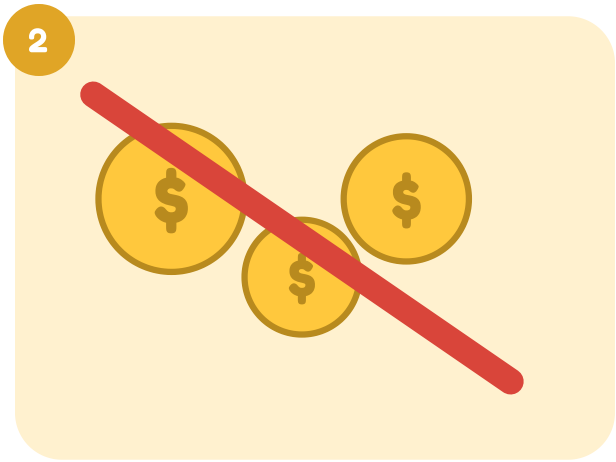

Abu Lahab lost out because he fought the truth.

WHAT IT TEACHES US

Six big lessons

1

Be kind to others

Never hurt people.

2

Listen to the truth

Think before you fight it.

3

Money cannot save us

Only kindness and faith help.

4

Do not hurt the helpers

Respect those who teach good.

5

Family cannot save us

Our own choices matter.

6

Allah sees everything

He sees every kind and unkind thing.

Remember: Be kind. Listen. Think about the truth!

MAKE-BELIEVE STORY

Listen First!

Teacher said, "Everyone, the new rule is that we line up quietly." Ben shouted, "No! I do not like it!" and ran away.

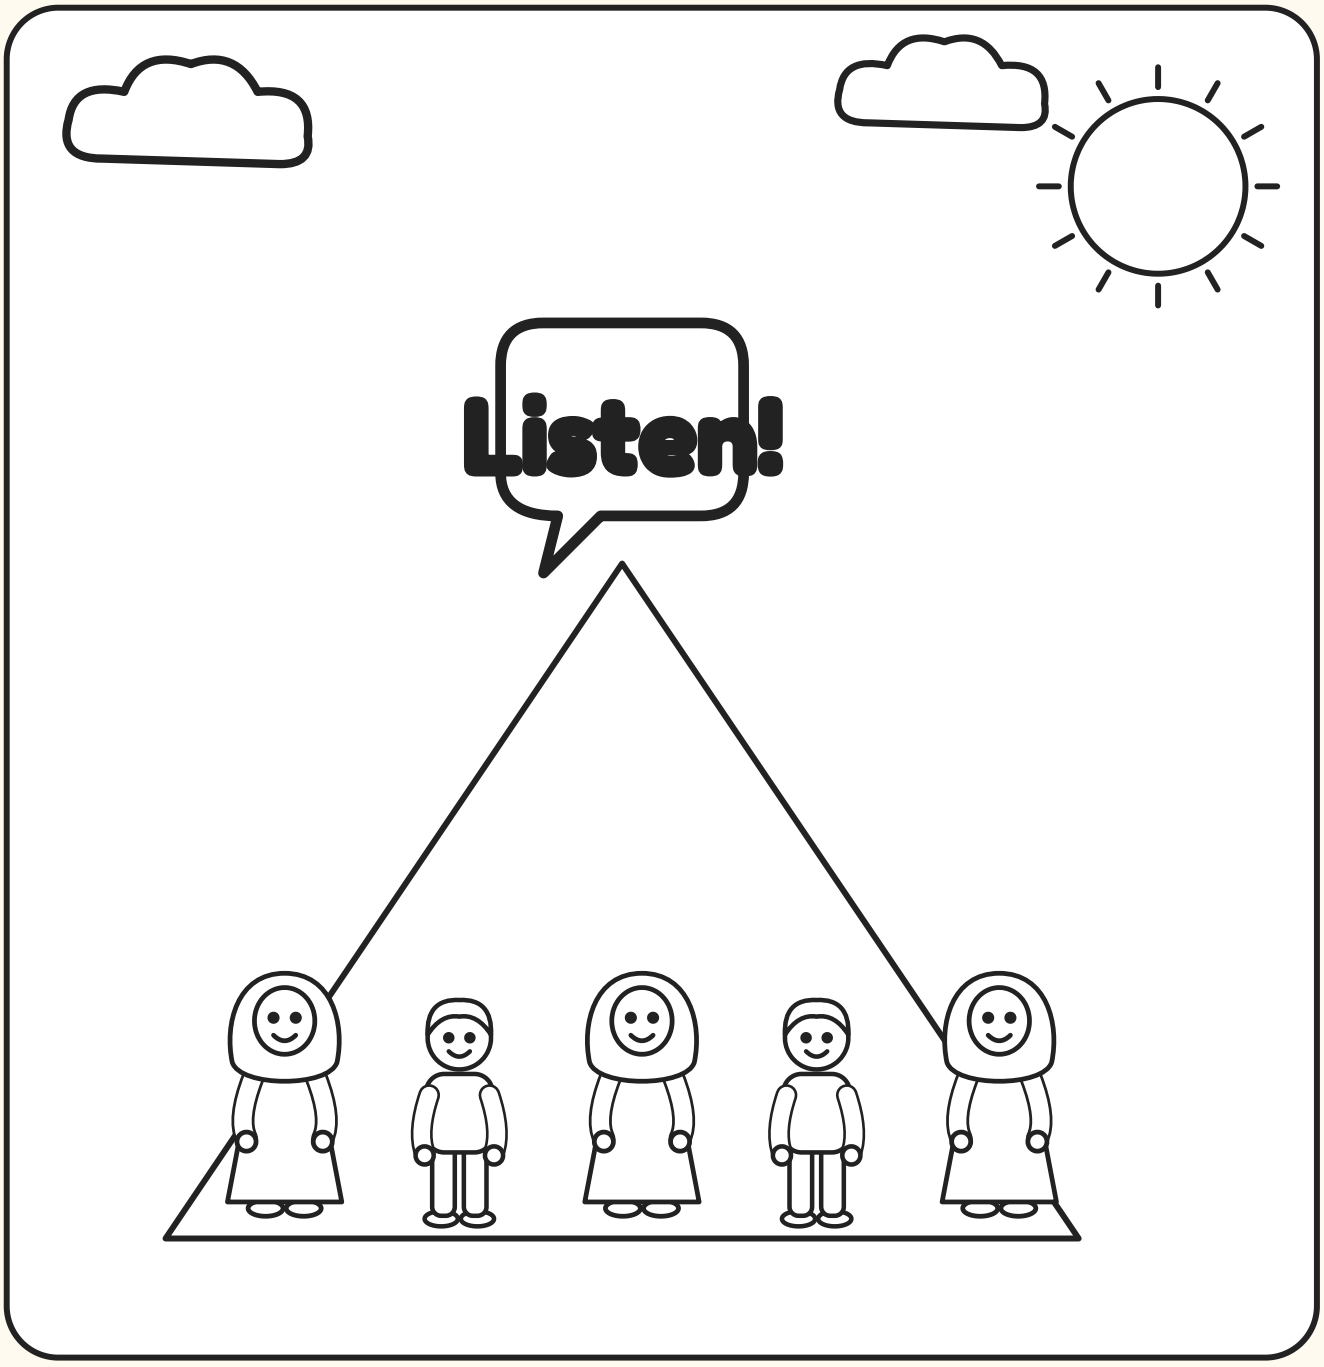

Lina listened to the whole rule: "...because we are going to the playground!"

Ben missed the news. Lina was ready. Listening first is wise.

Talk about it: Abu Lahab did not listen to the truth. Why is it important to listen before we say no?
