THE STORY OF THE SURAH

Lord, King and God

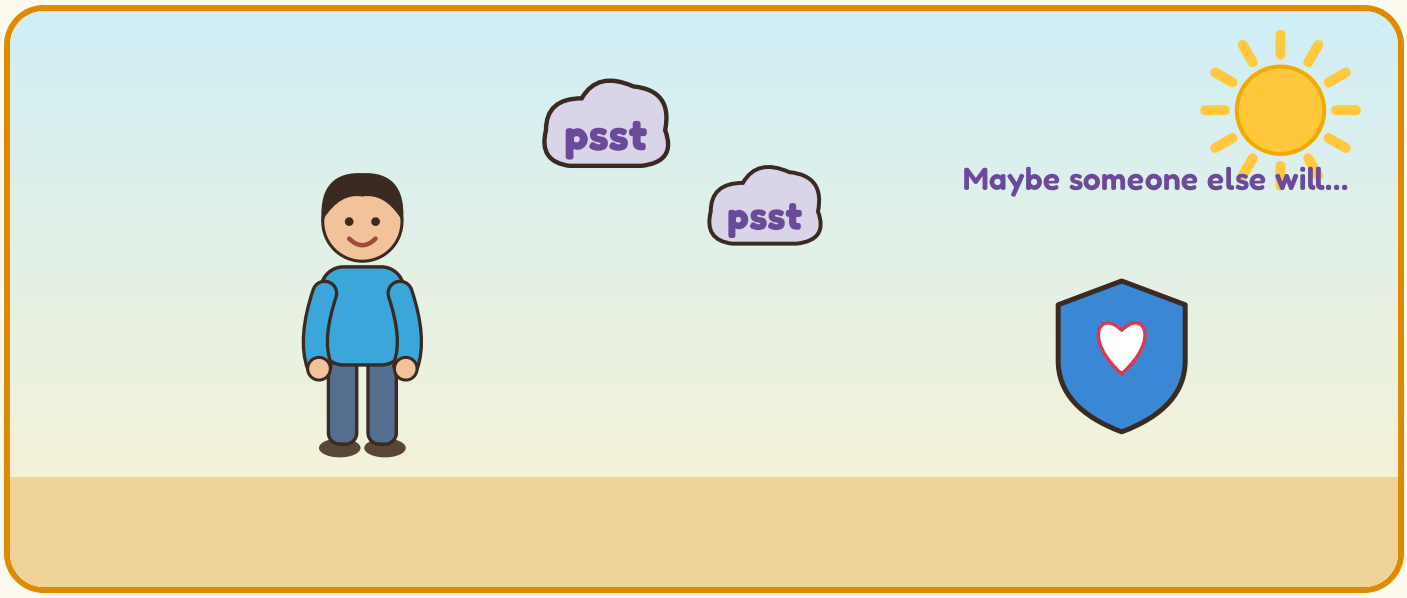

Allah is the Lord of all people. He made us and takes care of us.

Allah is the King of all people. He is in charge of everything.

Allah is the God of all people. Only He deserves our worship. So we ask Him for protection!

THE STORY OF THE SURAH

Karim and the Whispers

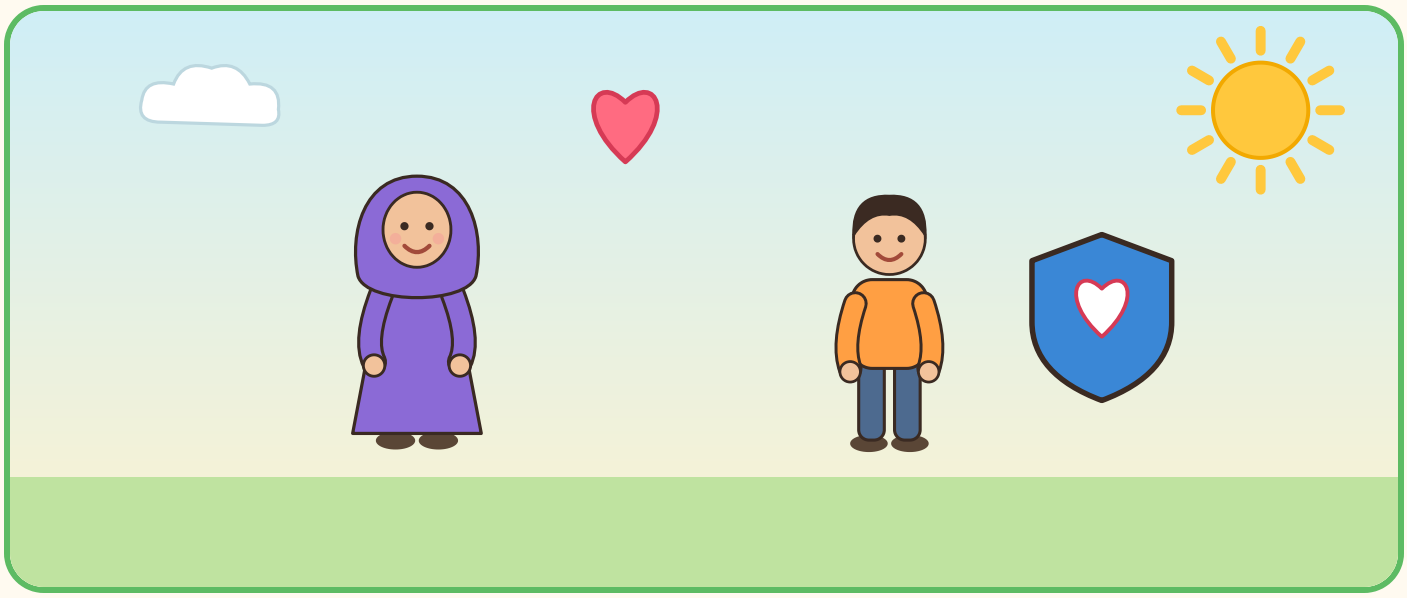

Karim wanted to give money for a good cause. But Shaytan whispered, “Maybe someone else will do it.”

Then, “People will think you are showing off!” Karim said, “Allah already knows my intention.” Then, “You forgot your wallet!” “I will bring it tomorrow!”

At last, Karim recited Ayat Al-Kursi, and the whispers were gone.

THE STORY OF THE SURAH

Choose Good Friends

Bad whispers can come from Shaytan, and sometimes from people who tell us to do wrong.

We stay close to friends who help us do good. And we ask Allah to protect us from every bad whisper.

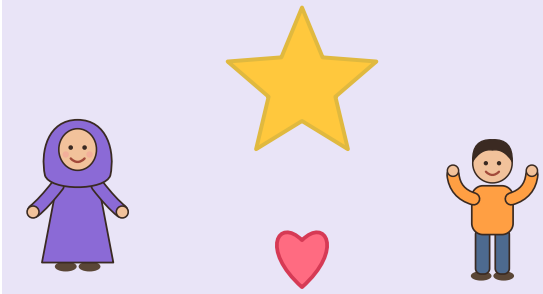

Think about it: What can you say when you hear a bad whisper?

For grown-ups: from The Clear Quran for Kids, told gently for little readers. Please teach the dua and Ayat Al-Kursi with a teacher.

Zaid and the Whisper

A whisper came: "Eat them all! No one will see!" Zaid felt his tummy rumble.

Then Zaid said, "A'udhu billah!" and thought of Allah. The whisper went quiet. He shared the cookies with his sister, and they both smiled.

Talk about it: Allah sees everything. What can you do when you hear a bad whisper?
