This book belongs to: _____

BACKGROUND STORY

The Jealous King

Long ago, a king named Abraha lived in Yemen.

Many people traveled to Makkah to visit the Ka'bah. Abraha felt jealous.

So he built a big, fancy building. "Come here instead!" he said. But people still loved the Ka'bah.

BACKGROUND STORY

A Very Big Army

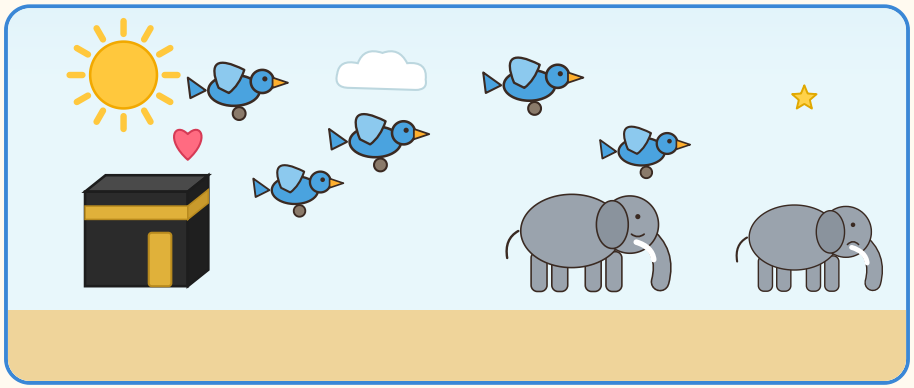

Abraha got very angry. "I will destroy the Ka'bah!" he said.

He gathered a huge army with many elephants. The army marched toward Makkah.

The people of Makkah were scared. They could not fight such a big army.

BACKGROUND STORY

Allah Protects His House

But Allah protects His House! Allah sent flocks of tiny birds. Each bird carried small stones of baked clay.

The birds dropped the stones on the army. The army was stopped. They never reached the Ka'bah.

Think about it: Who is stronger, a big army or Allah?

Many people say Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) was born in this same year. For grown-ups: from The Clear Quran for Kids (reported by Imam Ibn Kathir), simplified for little readers.

FUNNY SIDE STORY

The Donkey and the Water

A boy and his donkey carried things home from the farm. On the way, there were small water channels. The donkey jumped over them with ease.

One day, there was a big new channel. The donkey took two steps back. He knew he could not jump it!

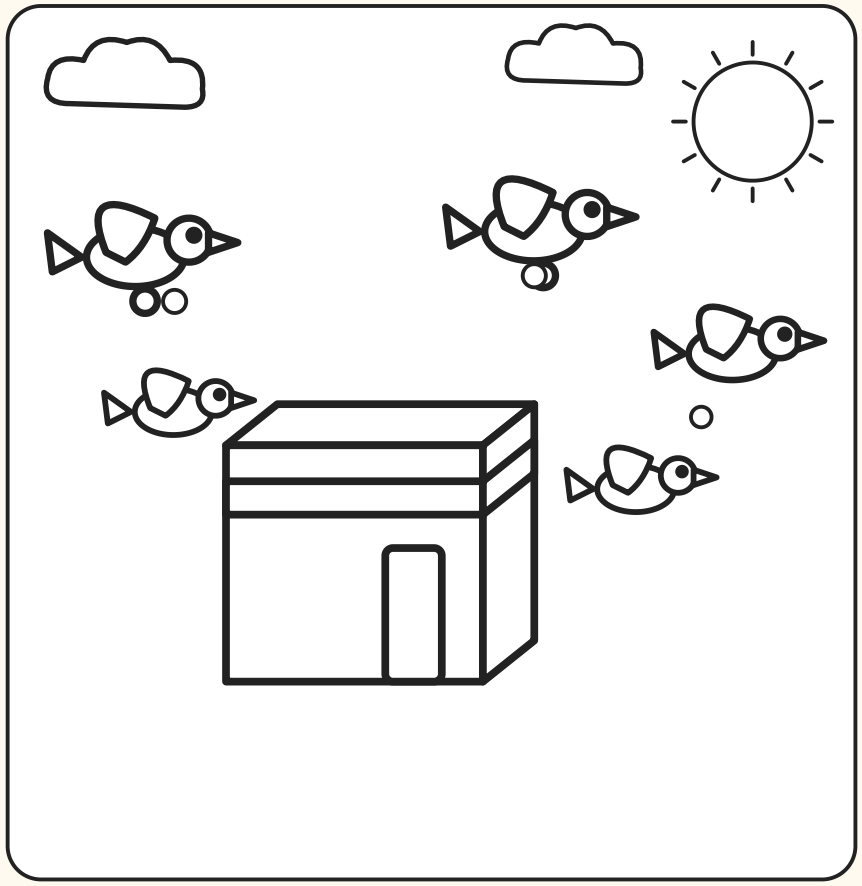

The boy tried to make him jump. The donkey would not move. So the boy jumped himself... SPLASH! He landed in the water.

The donkey seemed to smile. “Who is the donkey now?”

Talk about it: Stop and think before you jump! In Surah Al-Fil, even the elephants would not harm the Ka’bah. What do animals teach us?
