This book belongs to: _____

THE STORY OF THE SURAH

A Big Question

Some people came to the Prophet with questions about Allah.

“What does your God look like? Is He made of gold, silver, or wood? Does He have a family?”

Allah sent down a short, powerful answer.

SHOW WHAT YOU KNOW

Trace the gray answers. Then say them out loud!

1 How many gods are there?

There is only One: Allah.

2 Who do we ask for help?

We ask only Allah.

3 What lessons did you learn from Surah Al-Ikhlas?

Allah is One.

Everyone needs Allah.

No one is like Allah.

THE STORY OF THE SURAH

Allah Is One

Allah is One. He is the Master that everyone needs, but He needs no one.

He has no children, and He was never born. And no one is equal to Him.

THE STORY OF THE SURAH

A Surah to Love

The Prophet said that reading this surah is like reading one third of the Quran in reward!

One of his friends read it in every prayer. “Why?” people asked. He said, “Because I love it so much.” The Prophet told him, “Your love for it will take you to Jannah!”

Think about it: Why do you think this surah is so loved?

For grown-ups: from The Clear Quran for Kids (reported by Imams At-Tirmidhi, Ahmad, Al-Bukhari and Muslim), simplified for little readers.

THINK AND CIRCLE

Is this what Surah Al-Ikhlas teaches?

A TRUE STORY

Hosayn and the Seven Gods

Hosayn came to talk to the Prophet. “How many gods do you have?” the Prophet asked. “Seven,” said Hosayn. “Six on earth, and One in heaven.”

“When something bad happens, who do you call?” “The One in heaven!” “When you lose something?” “The One in heaven!”

“Then why do you need the others?” asked the Prophet. Hosayn thought and thought... and he became a Muslim.

Talk about it: When you need help, who do you call? Why is Allah the only One we need?
